

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

VOL. I.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 10, 1882.

NO. 83.

WASHINGTON.

The Chinese Bill was Passed in the Senate—29 to 15.

Another Garfield Letter—Cannon Foes His Mind on the Anti-Polygamy Bill—Star Route Cases Again.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Senate at 5:30 p.m. passed the Chinese bill by 29 yeas against 15 nays.

THE STAR ROUTES.

The Star Route case came up this morning in the criminal court for the purpose of giving defendants an opportunity to give bail. The bail of T. J. Brady, ex-Assistant Postmaster General, was fixed by the court at $20,000. The bail in the other cases is from one to two thousand dollars. Pleading will begin next Thursday.

HILL'S MALADY MORTAL.

Senators think Ben Hill's malady mortal.

The President has nominated Walter A. Smith, U. S. Marshal for California.

JONES SPEAKING ON THE CHINESE BILL.

The Senate, at 1:40 this afternoon, resumed the consideration of the Chinese bill, and Hawley took the floor in opposition. Hawley finished speaking at 2:15. He was followed by Jones of Nevada, who speaking extemporaneously, proceeded to review and criticize the arguments advanced by the opponents of the bill, especially the two Senators from Massachusetts.

DAN. McSWENEY'S CASE.

A resolution was passed instructing the Secretary of State to ascertain the cause for imprisonment by the British Government of Daniel McSweny, a citizen of the United States and a late resident of California.

MORE GARFIELD LETTERS.

Gen. Rosecrans declines to say anything in reply to the letter published yesterday purporting to be written by Gen. Garfield in 1868. He says he is taking steps to ascertain whether or not the letter is genuine, and will await the result of those inquiries before saying anything upon the subject. Gen. Rosecrans adds: "As the letter gravely affects the character of Gen. Garfield for truth and veracity, I deem it due to him to first ascertain if it is genuine."

CANNON ON THE ANTI-POLYGAMY BILL.

In conversation to-day Cannon, of Utah, expressed himself very freely on the Anti-Polygamy bill. He said the bill was very unjust. It is framed upon prejudice, and is being pushed by people who are ignorant of the true condition of affairs in the Territory. Utah is in a very flourishing condition.

CHICAGO SPECIALS.

Shipyard Subpoenaed—Levi P. Morton Recalled.

CHICAGO, March 9.—A special from Washington says the House Committee on Foreign Affairs will examine Jacob R. Shipherd Saturday of this week. He has responded to a subpoena by the Sergeant-at-Arms and will be on hand. He is subpoenaed duces tecum and is commanded not to leave the city until Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. until discharged by the Committee.

RECALLED—A GENTLE HINT.

Levi P. Morton, American Minister in Paris, has been recalled by a resolution adopted by the House. General Hurlbut has also been notified that an investigation is under way. He has been given leave of absence with the intimation that he is expected to avail himself of it and come home, when first informed of his leave.

JESSE JAMES.

A Sensational Story of His Capture Again—Discredited.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 9.—It is reported this morning that a Sheriff's officer entered the depot at Moberly having just arrived from the West, looking very pale, worn and bespattered, and told an exciting story. He said that Jesse James was captured last evening at a place near Kansas. The outlaw was surrounded in the midst of a heavy timber where he and his companion, the supposed Ed. Miller, were hiding. They made a desperate resistance and killed seven officers while an attempt was being made to batter down the door. Jesse's companion was shot dead and Jesse mortally wounded. The officer who told the story claimed to have been with the party, and had just reached Moberly by train. The story is generally discredited.

Watching the Chinese Bill.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A Washington special says the Chinese Minister is watching the debate on the Anti-Immigration bill very closely, and informs his government daily of the progress made. In an interview yesterday he admitted the right of the United States, under the treaty, to restrict immigration, but did not think it exactly fair or just to prohibit the Chinese from coming here for so long a period as twenty years. The Chinese Government, he said, had no objection to a ten-year limitation, and he was surprised that the amendment of Senator Ingalls, backed as it was by the eloquence of Senator Edmunds, did not meet with the approval of the Senate.

Discharged Her Detectives.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—The entire city detective force of this city has been disbanded on account of charges against their individual characters.

THE FLOODS.

Still Raining and More Damage Anticipated.

MEMPHIS, March 9.—The river has risen two inches since yesterday. High winds may destroy the levees at Helena and Friar's Point.

MORE RAIN.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 8.—A steady rain has fallen for three days at Arkansas City. The river rose one inch from noon to 6 p. m. to-day.

AN ENTIRE COUNTY SUBMERGED.

MEMPHIS, March 9.—E. H. Moore, the Attorney of Bolivar county, reports breaks in the Hushpucuna and Lake Charles levees Monday night. The former is the largest levee in Mississippi, and these breaks submerge the entire county of Bolivar. At Rosedale the water is ten feet deep in all the dwellings. Of the three hundred inhabitants only three families yet remain, and they are living in the garrets of their own houses. All others have sought safety elsewhere. The levee immediately in front of Rosedale is crowded with negroes, mules and cattle. The negroes to the number of about five hundred have no shelter and are subsisting on cattle which they have killed. Their condition is terrible, they having been exposed for the past two days to cold, drenching showers.

A Prisoner Among the Indians.

CHICAGO, March 9.—A Helena, M. T., special says that the United States Marshal there has received a dispatch dated the 8d from his deputy, John Neely, to the effect that he is prisoner among the half-breeds and Indians in camp on Milk river. The country is full of smugglers and illicit traders, and he had arrested six of the leading men and captured $2,000 worth of robes when the Indians captured him and his outfit. He asks aid from Fort Assiniboine, as there are not troops enough at Poplar river, and the Sauts Indians are ready for war. Marshal Botkin has directed aid to be sent.

GENERAL RUCKER SENDS AID.

Later information is that Gen. Rucker, commandant at Fort Assiniboine, has sent seven companies of infantry and two of cavalry, numbering 400 men, under Captain Norwood, to the scene of the trouble, with instructions to rescue Healy and drive the half-breeds and Greeks back into British territory whence they came. It is feared Healy and his companions may be butchered before the troops arrive.

OMAHA LABOR RIOTS.

The Militia and Three Companies of Regulars Ordered Out.

OMAHA, Neb., March 9.—It has been quiet to-day, but the excitement over yesterday's labor riot still prevails. The B. & M. Railroad Company did no work in their grounds, and announce they will stop all public improvement in Omaha until their own employees can be simply protected from violence from strikers and outsiders. The railroad company says they want no men to work for them who were in any way connected with yesterday's riot or with the labor union. They propose to employ only their own workmen, who are willing to accept the wages given them. The laboring men had several private meetings to-day. It is reported that some hot-headed ones threatened to make a raid on the B. & M. headquarters and freight depot and on some of the newspaper offices and other establishments, but little attention has been paid to such rumors. One of the B. & M. special policemen who was roughly handled and pounded yesterday is lying in the hospital in a critical condition. An attempt will be made to ferret out the ringleaders and fighters among the rioters and arrest them. Last night a party of leading business went to Lincoln by special train and laid the situation before Governor Nance, who to-day ordered the militia companies at different points in Nebraska on the U. P. and B. & M. Roads, to get ready and take a special train for Omaha this evening. The are expected here to-night. Gov. Nance also telegraphed to the President to direct Gen. Crook to order out three companies of regulars from Fort Omaha. All these troops will to-morrow be stationed at the B. & M. grounds and the B. & M. will put a large force of their own graders at work. The citizens and authorities are determined that mob law shall not triumph, and if necessary military force will be kept on duty for three months or until the work is completed.

ALEXANDRIA, La., March 9.—The levee broke here this morning.

Dr. Taggart's Condition.

YUMA, March 9.—The condition of Dr. Taggart is about the same, with no change for the better. The surgeons do not give any definite opinion as to the end, but their manner and expression leads to the belief that the chances are against his recovery. When shot, Dr. Taggart, who is a surgeon of first rate repute, after some reflection stated that he must die, and directed at what spot the ball lay, whence it was extracted. Much anxiety is felt in this community, and every hope is that the victim of a most inhuman attack may recover.

Weather Report.

Observations taken by the U. S. Army Signal Service at 8:15 o'clock last night are as follows: Barometer, 30.19; Thermometer, 49; dew point, 43; wind, calm; 5 miles per hour; clear. Maximum thermometer, 63; minimum thermometer, 45.

SAN FRANCISCO BUDGET.

A New Grade Call Exchange—A Disfranchisement Association.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—To-day the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board adopted, by unanimous vote, the report of the special committee recommending an investigation of a Grade Call Exchange in this city. The new organization is to have separate officers, directors and cashier, and be in every particular a distinct association from the old Stock Board, although although under its control and patronage. Daily meetings will be held at 1:30 p. m. and transaction of regular business to commence as soon as practicable.

MARONEY ARRAIGNED.

To-day the case of Officer John Maroney, charged with assault to murder Attorney D. J. Murphy, came up for preliminary examination in the Police Court. Maroney waived an examination and was held to await the action of the Grand Jury in $3,000. Bail was furnished at once and the defendant released. The second charge of shooting at bailiff Aggar was dismissed, there being no evidence to show that Maroney attempted to take Aggar's life instead of his own.

THE VETERANS' HOME.

Articles of incorporation of the Veteran's Home Association were filed here this morning. The object of the corporation is founding a home for the relief and support of worthy officers, soldiers, marines, and sailors who honorably served in the army and navy of the United States during the war with Mexico or in the Rebellion, or in any other war, and who are in indigent circumstances, and by reason of age, infirmity or wounds received in the service and are incapable of self support. The duration of the policy is fifty years. The principal place of business is San Francisco. The following are the Directors: W. S. Rosecrans, C. Mason, Kinne, K. P. Hammond, W. A. Phillips, W. Blandford, J. Covill, Geo. C. Smart, R. M. Aggar, H. K. McJunkin, D. M. Caelin and J. J. Lyon, all residents of San Francisco.

A JOURNALIST DISGUSTED WITH LIFE.

E. T. Kennedy committed suicide in his room at the Russ House last night by taking laudanum. Deceased was employed on the Alta as leading writer for some weeks past. He left a letter to a fellow-journalist which shows the act to have been the result of despondency and disgust with life. Deceased was a man of much ability but of a delicate organization and of a sensitive disposition, and at times addicted to the use of stimulants.

The Debris Case.

SACRAMENTO, March 9.—Attorney General Hart completed his argument in the debris case at 11:30 a. m., citing strong authorities in support of the points already made. The court said it would decide the case as speedily as possible. Counsel were granted two weeks in which to file printed briefs, points and authorities. The court then adjourned.

Afternoon Stocks.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Virginia, 85c; Curry, 2 1/2; Mexican, 8 1/2; Ophir, 9 1/2; Union, 10 1/2; Nevada, 7 1/2; Eureka, 17 1/2; Alpha, 11; Jacket, Best, 6; Overman, 40c; Point, 20c; Belcher, 60c; Diablo, 6; Belle, 2 1/2; Bodie, 4 1/2; Mono, 1 1/2; Tipton, 4 1/2; King, 17 1/2.

Judge Lynch at Work.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 8.—At Lunas yesterday Chas. Shelton, John Redmond and Harry French were taken from jail and hanged to the nearest tree by masked men. Shelton murdered a fireman at Woodruff last fall; Redmond killed James McDermott last January at Gallup, on the A. P. R. R.; French, alias Simpson, was one of a band of desperadoes who killed Deputy Sheriff Jones at Granes. The mob also took two negroes from jail, beat them unmercifully, and turned them loose.

Gov. Tritle Qualifies.

PROVENCE, March 9.—F. A. Tritle qualified and entered into the duties of his office as Governor yesterday afternoon at Prescott.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Coercion Act Applies to All.

LONDON, March 9.—Lowell, U. S. Minister, replying to the application made on behalf of American citizens arrested in Ireland, says that the coercion act is contrary to the spirit and the foundation principles of both English and American jurisprudence, but is the law of the land and controls all persons domiciled in the proclaimed districts of Ireland, whether British subjects or not. It is manifestly futile to ask that naturalized citizens of the United States should be exempted from the operations of the act.

CALIFORNIA WHEAT CROP.

Those who may not have been observant of the statistics can not fully comprehend the enormous yield of wheat our young State is producing. It is interesting reading to note the growth in the last twenty years, and speculate as to our future yield when the land shall all be placed under cultivation. We quote from tables the yield for three periods:

Year	Cents	Value
1860	450,000	4,500,000
1870	1,700,000	17,000,000
1880	55,017,707	550,177,707

The yield in bushels for 1880 was 55,017,707. This is the largest yield of any year. In 1881 the quantity raised fell off largely, the decrease from the year previous being 9,968,000 bushels. The falling off was divided in about the same ratio among the central and northern counties of the State, the southern counties, excepting Santa Barbara, showing increases, as follows:

County	1880	1881
Los Angeles	800,000	1,300,000
San Bernardino	300,000	400,000
San Diego	150,000	200,000
Santa Barbara	1,200,000	1,400,000
Yuba	450,000	600,000

A writer indulging in speculations of our future, says California has land enough suitable for wheat growing to produce an annual crop of seven hundred and fifty million bushels! And the crop would produce a revenue, at a dollar a bushel, of five hundred and seventy millions of dollars, or three hundred and eighty millions at the low figures of fifty cents per bushel! These astounding figures have nothing startling about them to one acquainted with the State, and the stranger may believe them to be merely an announcement of our wheat standing a score of years hence. It is sure to come, and those young men now who wish to participate in this coming prosperity should possess themselves of the land while it is cheap, and be prepared to reap the advantages of the immense tracts in the hills and valleys.

Of our market and transportation facilities, the writer we have above alluded to says:

"When either the Panama or Nicaragua Canal is finished, we will, by means of steam, be brought within seven weeks of Liverpool, Cork, or Havre. The railroad will probably carry all the wheat of Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties to Europe as well as the flour of the whole State to Texas and the South, and its completion will keep European freights down to a minimum."

"The market for our flour in China and England, and particularly in the former country, will increase with great rapidity and we believe indeed, that in the future, Asia will move than rival Europe as a customer for our flour and grain. Tropical America will too be open to us, more especially on the completion of the inter-ocean canal, which is one of the objects that those interested in our grain trade should have most at heart."

WHAT IS THE PARTY'S STRENGTH?

The Republican party obtained control of the Government because it embodied in its platform of principles the aggregated sense of justice and right of the American people. It has held control for so long a time because, as a party, it has generally done those things of which the people approved. When its leaders have, at times, departed from the true course, they have been warned by the press of the disapproval of the people, and have repented of the error of their ways and returned to duty.

The party has had leaders it is true—great and good and wise men—men in whom the masses could trust, but they have not trusted them blindly. The leaders have generally had the wisdom to do what the bulk of the party could approve as right, and that is why the party has continued in power, and so long as the party continues to be composed of intelligent, thinking men, no set of office-holders can lead them to approve of what is wrong.

So long as the party continues to do right it will be great and powerful. So soon as its leaders are permitted to override right and decency and their acts are approved and upheld by a press whose duty it should be to give them timely warning and correct abuses, just so soon will the power of the party depart, for the intelligent masses will not be led into approval of wrong.

It is the right and the duty of every Republican to criticize and condemn any wrong done by a Republican officeholder, and just so long as these criticisms are heard and the wrong ways repented of, the party may hope to retain its ascendancy, but when the officers do wrong and disregard the rights and the party press remains silent or attempts to apologize for or cover them up, then the power of the party will speedily depart.

The grain crop outlook at Merced is discouraging; not so the political one.

INVENTIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

For burns and scalds a solution of bicarbonated soda is highly recommended on good authority. Apply by covering the injured part with a soft rag or even with blotting paper, and keep it constantly wet with the solution. It is said all pain will cease in from a quarter to a half hour. A bottle of the solution should be kept prepared.

Two incandescent lamps for electric lighting have recently been invented and patented. They are similar to the lamps of Edison and Swan—carbon inside of vacuum globes.

It has been the custom heretofore to apply electricity as a motor to make things stop, but now it is to be used to make things stop. Edison has recently taken out a patent for an electro-magnetic brake, which can be applied to any kind of cars.

A meritorious invention is a shield to put over a circular saw when it is in use. It is so constructed as not to interfere with the uses of the saw, and remains always in place, completely preventing any chances for contact with the saw. Remembering the very many and serious accidents which have occurred in saw-mills and wood-working manufactories, we consider this invention one of the best for many years.

The snow-sheds on the Central Pacific road in the Sierra Nevada mountains cost ordinarily from $8,000 to $12,000 per mile. In some cases as high as $30,000 per mile.

The suffocating period of whooping cough may be cut short by the use of muric acid of pilocarpine. Following is the formula: Pilocarpine muric acid, 0.025 grm.; cognac f. champ, 5 grms.; syrup eart. aurant., 25 grms.; distill., 70 grms.; from a teaspoonful to a table-spoonful—according to age—to a dose. The remedy acts very promptly.

In Connecticut a cat took her lodgings in a fly-wheel of a foundry. The works were started up in the morning and run for two hours and a half the fly revolving with great velocity. Noticing what he thought was an object in the wheel, the engineer stopped the engine and removed the cat. It had become cross-eyed. The engineer put the feline in a box and cared for it. In three days its eyes began to assume a normal appearance and in the course of a week came round and evinced the usual interest in the work.

In 1873 25,000 young whitefish were placed in Clear Lake, Cal., from Lake Michigan. Fine specimens of the grown fish are now being taken from the lake.

Shrimp canning is a new enterprise at New Orleans, and already a product of 10,000 cans per day is turned out.

A NEW DRINK.

Dick Fellows, the notorious stage robber of Santa Barbara, has at last obtained an imperishable fame. A "Dick Fellows' Cocktail" is the rage now in San Jose; it is I X L bitters re-christened. We presume that is the drink Richard duffed for when he escaped from that dumpy constable of Santa Clara.

The New York Daily Graphic of the 1st inst., comes out with a broadside against stock gambling. A cartoon, having commerce, mining, agriculture and manufactures represented in the border, has a big ugly blot like an ink-spot in the center, but lightly sketched in the middle of which is a man who has been financially ruined by the "bulls" and "bears" of Wall street.

A srook of summer-fallow wheat was exhibited in Stockton this week which measured twenty inches in length of stalk and leaves. It is a fair sample from a field of 1,100 acres near Turlock, and is far enough advanced to resist an ordinary unfavorable season.

ARIZONA MINES AND MINING.

A gentleman, who has had occasion recently to pass through Arizona and a portion of New Mexico, made some observations in regard to the mining outlook and present development of the districts contiguous to the railways as he passed along. He gives us some of the result of his observations, which, without going into specific details may be epitomized in a general article. All along the line, from Los Vegas, New Mexico, and stations west, where connections are made with the mineral belt of the Black Range, Silver City and Clifton, thence westward to Maricopa, in Arizona, at every station are vast piles of coke, aggregating thousands of tons, used in smelting the various ores, and great piles of mining machinery of every kind, all awaiting transportation to mine or mill site. This is coming and going constantly. There is a great activity apparent in mining camp and all the mines are being developed as rapidly as proper machinery can be obtained and put in place. The new smelting works at

Shakespeare, recently put in operation, are turning out well, even better than was expected, and the fires are kept constantly burning. The lead, gold producing, grows better as it grows deeper and everything looks very bright and prosperous with the mine. The smoke from the immense stack is plainly visible from the cars and is a pleasing contrast to an otherwise barren and desolate region. Leadsmithing is the railroad station for Shakespeare, and here an immense covered bin has been erected to receive the coke used. At this station, also, a few days ago was an immense quantity of mining machinery principally from the east, but it has about all been removed to the mines. Several miles of twelve inch water pipe were included, to convey water to the mills. This is also the shipping point for the Long-fellow Copper Mine, as well as other copper mines near Clifton, and the great piles of copper in one hundred and fifty pound and even larger ingots lying everywhere, awaiting shipment to market, sufficiently indicates the richness of these mines. They are understood to be practically inexhaustible. Nothing is being done with the mill erected last season at Bowie Station, now and it will probably be taken down and removed to the mine belonging to the company of a few miles. Developments there are excellent and quite extensive, and a good report will be given from them in the near future. Galeville, somewhat under a shadow in the past, is picking up now and prospects brightly and confidence is well; indeed, the Texas Consolidated Company anticipates making a good "clean-up," yet. New discoveries were reported last week that are highly spoken of and prospecting now is more diligently followed. At Steins' Pass, way up on the side of a mountain, hoisting works have just been put in operation, and one of a good grade is being taken out. It is understood that a mill will be erected this season. These works are near the railroad, and in plain sight. The mine is owned by a Boston company of abundant means and it evidently means business. The mines along the Dragon mountains are doing well and their owners are confident of wealth and affluence in the near future. The mines at and Charleston are all apparently doing well; indeed, the Texas Consolidated Company stream that flows from those mines is both steady and strong. The increased production of the mines around these points is very marked and exceedingly satisfactory. Great piles of copper ingots at the railroad warehouse attest the value of the products of the Copper Queen. At this point there is a pile of coke about a mile and a half long. At Casa Grande, where very profitable pile of mining machinery, this of California make, awaiting transportation to Butte, a new mining district just now coming into prominence, about twelve miles north of Florence. This is said to be a very valuable mining property, and to almost rival the famous Silver King. Its owners are men of means and energy and are pushing the work of preparation for opening and development very rapidly. There are

OTHER POINTS of interest our informant gathered up that may be a subject of comment hereafter about mines in other localities. But while all these mines look to be and are prosperous, there are a great many idle men in New Mexico and Arizona. It takes money to develop a gold or silver mine, and unless a man has some at least a very meager capital, these territories are excellent places to stay away from. Passenger and freight traffic with the territories are constantly on the increase, and trains of forty heavily loaded freight cars with two or three locomotives, are no uncommon thing now. A great proportion of this freight is mining machinery of modern build and powerful. Where some of it goes to will be spoken of afterwards.

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

ABOUT TOWN.

Two vessels sailed Wednesday from Wilmington to port on the coast.

B. W. Ready has already shot six twentys in the score recently commenced at Slotterbeck's.

Isaac W. Tunney has been appointed postmaster at Orange, vice A. B. Clark, resigned.

G. S. Sayers, for being drunk and disorderly, was sent to jail for nine days by Judge Adams.

The Grand Jury has been in session four days with a good prospect of continuing the rest of the week.

The concert to be given by Miss Mamie Perry in aid of the Orphans' Home will be given immediately after the Lenten season.

Geo. Wilshire and family are at the Pico House. He left Cincinnati a few weeks ago, and was treated to a big banquet on leaving.

The Board of Trustees of the Public Library have ordered "Drawings and Specifications of models in the Patent Office," from July, 1880.

"Did you get her photo?" A Hill street young man was heard to ask a friend at an evening party a day or two ago. "No," was the reply, "but I got her negative."

The police made an unusual number of arrests last night, all for drunkenness. Some of them looked like the last pickled cucumber, and others like Oscar Wilde's sunflower.

It is rumored that Dr. Siddons has sold his property in the southern part of the city, consisting of eight acres of land, residence, etc., to Mr. Thomas, father of Milton Thomas, for $3,300.

Alexander Repetto, the well-known wealthy sheep raiser, died early yesterday morning very suddenly. He was in town on Wednesday, apparently as well as usual, hence the report of his death was scarcely credited around town yesterday.

Mr. Wm. Foster, of this city, has invented a "patent crupper," designed for the purpose of preventing horses from cramping or in any way interfering with the lines. It is an ingenious device, and can be seen at Dr. Allen's drug store.

J. P. Spillman has sold his interest in the rubber stamp business to J. A. Valder and will leave for San Diego county in a few days to collect fees for next season's business. For variety and beauty it appears the Spillman family is superior to any on the coast.

Mr. Willmore will go down today to the American Colony tract with a party of gentlemen consisting of Messrs. Walshburn and Farnsworth of Mascot, Iowa; and Mr. Palmateer, recently of Pasadena but formerly of New York city. They are looking up colony interests.

About fifteen sales of good property have been made in Vernon district within the past three months. The prospects for fine crops of delicious fruits are excellent. Mr. Townsend is preparing to plant twelve acres of grape vines for Mrs. Redding, also eight acres for Mr. Anderson.

Barley is up in Vernon district about six inches on an average, and looks thrifty. The water supply conditions plentiful, and it is now used for irrigating purposes some distance south of Vernon district, one man having purchased ten heads of water, with which to irrigate his lands some miles below.

Dick Fellows.

Dick Fellows, the man charged with highway robbery, underwent a preliminary examination at Santa Barbara last Tuesday, a week ago, for relieving the Los Alamos stage January 8th. The witnesses for the people were George Richmond, the driver of the stage, Constable Burke, of Santa Clara, whom Fellows gave the slip, and the Wells, Fargo & Co. detective, J. B. Hume. Richmond identified the water taken from Fellows at Mayfield, and Burke and Hume testified that Fellows admitted that he took the watch from Richmond at the time the Los Alamos stage was robbed. The defendant was held in $10,000 dollar bonds to appear before the Superior Court.

A Pleasant Affair.

A most delightful entertainment was given at the Musical Conservatory rooms, in Temple Block, on Monday last, by Madame H. E. Stuyvesant and others, the occasion being a complimentary impromptu to a lady guest from Pasadena. The few especially favored guests from Pasadena, Santa Monica, Alhambra and vicinity will long remember and carry with them an event and grand old strains of "Casta Diva," "Adelaide," "Sontag Waltzes," as sung by request of the Madame. Also other airs and selections from the old masters as well as instrumental selections rendered in an artistic manner.

Seriously Injured.

The little girl, who fell from the elevator at the Normal school building Wednesday evening, it seems has sustained very severe injuries to the spine. Reports are contradictory, however, and the full extent cannot be determined. Troubles never coming singly. The mother has been very sick for some time, and this accident adds to the afflictions of the unfortunate family.

Base Ball.

The national game has not lost its charms for Los Angeles, and to-morrow at half-past one o'clock the University and Ivy base ball games will play a friendly game at Agricultural Park, preliminary to three regular games to come off on successive Saturdays at the same place for a ten dollar bat.

Birthday Party.

The boys of the Pico House will give a birthday party this evening to Theo Mersch, the steward of the house, at the residence of Mr. Price, on Alameda street. The Times acknowledges a next invitation.

Holy Matrimony.

Judge J. A. Fisher, at six o'clock last evening, united in the holy bonds of matrimony, in this city, Miss Emma L. Convery, of this place, and Thomas Boyd, of Compton.

SAN DIEGO TO LOS ANGELES

What a Reporter Saw—A Few Items of Interest.

"Must-go if I have to sit on somebody's lap"—Old Town—False Bay—No Super-San Luis Rey Mission.

"You can't go today," remarked the stage agent in San Diego to a Times reporter last Monday. "The stage is full today and to-morrow, but you can go Wednesday." "But, I must go now," answered the plumbago knight, "if I have to sit on somebody's lap." The little two-horse rockaway coach was filled with drummers, and one's trunk occupied the entire front seat. By turning his stock of dry goods samples on end, a vacancy was created for himself, and happily we occupied as the horses trotted gaily out of the Bay and Climate burg at 8 o'clock p. m. The road skirted the northwestern edge of San Diego bay, and four miles brought us to Old Town, with its antiquated postmaster, samson, palm trees, houses, inhabitants and appearance. It is safe to say that that place is "dead."

Leaving Old Town we crossed the levee made to turn San Diego river into False Bay, and to keep the chickens out of San Diego bay. This was a work John Phoenix was doing when he earned his literary fame. Further on our route was by the waters of False bay, so similar to the one we had just left. A passenger informed us that a British man-of-war entered here in A. D. 1776. Its beach was lined with dead stingrays. From False bay our way was over rolling hills, occasionally in sight of the Kinball "peanut" railroad, and of Tom Scott's old grade, which in many places is utilized as a country road. We stopped at sundown at a ranch house by the roadside. It was a postoffice. We spent the night here, but the lady of the house had no pity. This is the fate of all passengers on this route; they get a chance to have but few meals, and what there are would not support the life of a dog. Riding in a stage at night is not a very agreeable task, but this time it was inevitable. At midnight a change at San Luis Rey was had all around, coach, horses and driver, and we pursued our nocturnal journey. Days found us at Forter City, and in sight of the ocean once more. Here a wretched breakfast was dished up. From Forter the road was on the beach till it turned up a small valley to the San Juan Capistrano. Here while making our way changed we inspected the old Mission Church. It was built in the shape of a Greek cross, and in its ruins inspires one with its grandeur, and esteem for its gifted builders. Four old bells hung there yet, and their mellow tones now mingle with the sharp call of an Anglo-Saxon school bell across the street. This was Tuesday forenoon. A Santa Ana zephyr was blowing down from the desert to the west, and the coach was closely buttoned down, and we saw nothing more till we were landed in Santa Ana, at 2 p. m., just twenty-three hours of stageing. A call at the Standard office found Brother Harris doing well, and Nap Donovan with him, the same "boy" of "Auld Lang Syne."

The remaining part of the trip to this city on the cars was like home again, after the fare is down from the desert to the west, and the coach was closely buttoned down, and we saw nothing more till we were landed in Santa Ana, at 2 p. m., just twenty-three hours of stageing. A call at the Standard office found Brother Harris doing well, and Nap Donovan with him, the same "boy" of "Auld Lang Syne."

The remaining part of the trip to this city on the cars was like home again, after the fare is down from the desert to the west, and the coach was closely buttoned down, and we saw nothing more till we were landed in Santa Ana, at 2 p. m., just twenty-three hours of stageing. RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A Broken Car Wheel Does Considerable Damage.

The rumor given in the Times yesterday morning about a railroad accident turned out to be true. About 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon a special freight train was nearing this city and about three miles out a car wheel was broken, and before anyone could realize what was going on, eleven cars were piled up with their contents into one indiscriminate mass, and four or five other cars were badly damaged. A brakeman was severely hurt, and was taken to the hospital. The track was torn up for half a mile, and the in-bound passenger train was delayed four hours. A party of workmen were out yesterday clearing up the track.

A Character Case.

George Lehman, an old and eccentric resident of Los Angeles, died at the county hospital on Wednesday. He built the well known Round House, Georgetown Bakery and other buildings in the city, and was at one time a wealthy property owner. Among other eccentric things he built what he called the "Tower of Babel," and constructed the graves of Adam and Eve and the old serpent in the back yard of the old Round House. The serpent's grave was a curiosity. It was about sixty feet long, in winding position, as a snake is supposed to be in the act of crawling, and was plastered, as were also the graves of Adam and Eve, with cement. The Sixth street park is his donation to the city. Through mismanagement he became utterly impoverished and died a pauper in the county hospital.

Eggs—exactly.

Thomas Wilson is an egg-set man. He is around looking out for work. He went into the Santa Cruz store in Sonoma town Wednesday evening in company with an old offender, Peter Smith. When they came out Thomas filled his pockets with eggs. Officer Adolfo Collis was standing across the street, and saw the festive Thomas appropriating hen-fruit by the wholesale, and he laid his hands on Thomas and told him he was under arrest. Thomas resisted and tried to smash Collis with eggs, for all of which he has gone to jail for twenty days. As Peter Smith did not steal any eggs or resist an officer, he only got twelve days.

The Times Returns Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Paul will please accept the thanks of the Times press for a large, elegant, varied and trothsome supply of wedding cake. It was hugely enjoyed, and while discussing the delicious sweetmeats the wish went up that the givers might ever have as liberal a portion of the pleasures of life be meted out to them as they have accorded the printer, and that the joys of married life may never pall upon the generous couple.

A Chinese Funeral.

A Coroner's inquest was held yesterday at 4 p. m. on the body of a Chinaman who was taken sick on the emigrant train this side of Yuma and died in the car immediately on the arrival of the train in Los Angeles. The verdict rendered was: "Died from some cause or causes unknown."

Soon afterwards a small Chinese funeral was held at the corner of Main and Commercial streets to the burying ground. A nice hearse carried the corpse. A wagon with three mourners and the clothes and blankets of the dead man followed. On the hearse sat a Chinaman distributing little bits of paper to chase away the Devil.

Stolen Kisses.

To-night the Lingers open at Turnverein Hall with the above play. Their popularity as a crowd-drawer, and their ability and character assures those who attend a splendid time. A gentleman who witnessed the play in San Francisco says it is splendid. Don't forget it.

PASADENA.

What They are Doing at this Pleasant Suburb.

Personal Gossip—A Housewarming—Who are Planting Trees and Vines—Our Correspondent's Notes.

Mr. Palmateer and family will start for the east soon to spend the summer.

Mr. Heisey, who purchased Mr. Palmateer's place on Marengo avenue, moved out from Los Angeles last week.

Our young friend Geo. Horne started on his return home on Sunday last, going by way of Frisco.

Quite a pleasant affair took place at the residence of Mr. Mehaney, on Colorado street, the occasion being that of a housewarming tendered Mr. and Mrs. Mehaney by their friends. Quite a number were present and the evening being very enjoyably spent in music, singing by the choir, etc.

The following is a list of a few of our residents, showing "what will the advantage of the last rain (and those to come) and how they will do it:

Mr. Bonnie, trees.	16 acres
Ben E. Ward, vines.	10 acres
Mrs. J. E. Ward, vines.	10 acres
Mr. Harper, trees, etc.	30 acres

The Antinori Concert Again.

The people of Los Angeles are to be congratulated for having secured a repetition of the Grand Opera Concert so ably rendered recently. Such was the general desire to have the concert repeated that a deputation of ladies and gentlemen waited upon Signor Antinori on Wednesday and prevailed upon him to secure the hall and make the announcement. Those that missed the last entertainment should make a special effort to be present at the next one, which will take place on Wednesday evening, March 15th. A new and elaborate programme has been prepared, which will render the exercises new and interesting, even to those who were present at the last concert. The grand air "La Favorita," by Donizetti, is especially noticeable. This will be rendered by Signora Gemma Tiozzo, and will doubtless be itself a rich treat to every lover of music. The programme in full appears in "New To-Day."

The Sacramento river is now booming, and the Senator might possibly be able to go up to the City of Floods as in the "days of '49."
